Email address: procurement@archives.gov.mv

If your request for a debriefing is received within the 3 Business Days deadline, we will provide the debriefing within five (5) Business Days of receipt of your request. If we are unable to provide the debriefing within this period, the Standstill Period shall be extended by five (5) Business Days after the date that the debriefing is provided. If this happens, we will notify you and confirm the date that the extended Standstill Period will end.

The debriefing may be in writing, by phone, video conference call or in person. We shall promptly advise you in writing how the debriefing will take place and confirm the date and time.

If the deadline to request a debriefing has expired, you may still request a debriefing. In this case, we will provide the debriefing as soon as practicable, and normally no later than fifteen (15) Business Days from the date of publication of the Contract Award Notice.

4. How to make a complaint?

Period: Procurement-related Complaint challenging the decision to award shall be submitted by midnight on 9th December 2025 11:59PM.

Provide the contract name, reference number, name of the Bidder, contact details; and address the Procurement-related Complaint as follows:

Attention: Shahad Shareef

Title/position: ICT Technician

Agency: National Archives

Email address: procurement@archives.gov.mv

At this point in the procurement process, you may submit a Procurement-related Complaint challenging the decision to award the contract. You do not need to have requested, or received, a debriefing before making this complaint. Your complaint must be submitted within the Standstill Period and received by us before the Standstill Period ends.

In summary, there are four essential requirements:

1. You must be an ‘interested party’. In this case, that means a Bidder who submitted a Bid in this bidding process, and is the recipient of a Notification of Intention to Award.
2. The complaint can only challenge the decision to award the contract.
3. You must submit the complaint within the period stated above.
4. You must include, in your complaint, all of the information required by the Procurement Regulations

5. Standstill Period

DEADLINE: The Standstill Period is due to end at midnight on 9th December 2025 11:59PM

The Standstill Period lasts three (3) Business Days after the date of transmission of this Notification of Intention to Award.

The Standstill Period may be extended as stated in Section 3 above.

If you have any questions regarding this Notification, please do not hesitate to contact us.
